

Please leave New Jersey's 'DO-NOT-CALL' law unchanged.

As a Republican voter, I am disgusted to see how the federal government sticks their fingers in many aspects of the states that it should just leave alone.

You may get more donations from telemarketers than from plain old citizens like me, but that gives you no right to interfere in my privacy.